Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith a copy of the Review of the Fortnightly Journals of Amilolars and Deputy Amilolars of this District for the month of December 1896.

I have the honor to be

Your most Obedt Servant

Deputy Commissioner

44.

Review of the Fortification Journals of Incubators and Deputy Incubators of the Incubator District for the month of December 1895.

The following table shows the no of days on which the Incubators and Deputy Incubators were out in camp, the villages visited and the number of miles traveled by them.

Taluk	Names of Officers	No. of days out in camp	No. of villages visited	No. of miles traveled
Trivandrum	Mr. Prabhakara Rao	7	57	274
Arasikudi	Mr. Choudhary	X	20	54
Chinnai	Mr. L. S. Rao	2	40	11
Kira	Mr. A. Venkataswamy	5	22	29

Chinnai	Mr. P. S. Srinivasan	1	32	14
Trivandrum	Mr. P. S. Srinivasan	4	30	50

2. With the exception of the Incubators of Kira, Trivandrum and Quilai and the Deputy Incubator of Tiptur, the Other Indian officers have not been more than 3 days in camp during the month. The Amildars of Basidagiri and Chavapada and the Deputy Amildar of Turvickie have not camped out at all. This is unsatisfactory. Frequent visits (such as are paid by the Deputy Amildars of Turvickie) to the few villages situated at short distances from head quarters are useless & need should not be resorted to for the purpose of travelling the villages to be exhibited in the Journal. The Amildars and Deputy Amildars should camp out for at least seven days in the month.

3. The attention of the Amildar of Tiptur is drawn to the extremely brief nature of the account given done which is invariably given in his Journal - A few words such as "Examination of Basidagiri"

Abstract statement showing that love was one by Amildar and Deputy Amildar in ORDER THEREON.—Recorded.

2. The Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore has made no remarks on the diaries of his Amildars. Each Amildar does as little or as much as he likes, and the Deputy Commissioner does not apparently gauge their work by any standard. The Bangalore Amildar does not seem to have even submitted his diary.
3. The Amildars of the Kolar and Malur taluks should be warned that they should not confine themselves to head-quarters. They moved about very little during the period under review. The camping out of the other Amildars in the Kolar district was also by no means sufficient.
4. Government agree with the Deputy Commissioner of Tumkur in his observation that frequent visits to villages situated at short distances from head-quarters are useless, and should not be resorted to for the purpose of swelling the number of villages to be exhibited in the journal. Every Amildar or Deputy Amildar should camp out at least for ten days in a month. The touring must be systematic and the inspection, regular and full.
5. The Deputy Commissioner of Mysore is requested to explain why there was a delay of two months in the submission of his review under reference.

All the Amildars had to come to Chitaldrug for the Great Fair. Some time also of all of them was taken up with the arrangements that had to be made for the celebration of the completion of the 50th year of the reign of Her Majesty the Empress of India. These circumstances account for the comparatively small work done by the Amildars and Deputy Amildars of the District.

respectively, and that of the other Amildars though comparatively good is not what is expected of them.

The Amildars of Jedotora, Chaurajungpet, T. Tarasipet, Krishnarajpet, Rajammala, Mandya, Gundurpet, and Malavalli Taluk are said to have inspected khands, but nothing is said about their state, and the measures taken in regard to their repair if out of order.

The Amildars of Hunur, Chaurajungpet, Tanjengode, Krishnarajpet, Gundurpet and Rajammala report that they attended to the Village Enclosures in the course of their tour. The attention of the other Amildars is drawn to this important matter as well as the condition of avenue trees.

Owing to the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of Her Majesty, in the several taluk the Amildars explain that they had to stay at Headquarters for some time.

Considerable delay has occurred in the receipt of the journals of the Amildars in the district office. Assistant Commissioners in charge
